Report on One Day Online Webinar On Intellectual Property Rights

The One Day Online Webinar on Intellectual Property Rights, held on June 3, 2020, brought together experts and scholars to discuss crucial aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR). The event was organized by Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi, and SJM Law College, Chitradurga, to provide a platform for participants to gain insights into patents, access to medicine during the pandemic, and general principles of IPR. The seminar aimed to foster a better understanding of IPR and its relevance, particularly during the challenging times of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Inaugural Address

Prof. G.B Patil, Registrar, Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi, inaugurated the event by emphasizing the significance of intellectual property in the modern world. He highlighted the role of intellectual property in protecting innovation and fostering economic development. Prof. Patil's address set the stage for the day's discussions, stressing the need for a comprehensive understanding of IPR.

1st Session

Topic: Patents and Access to Medicine during the Pandemic: Issues and Concerns Speaker: Sri. Sunil Bagade, Assistant Professor, Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi.

Sri. Sunil Bagade delved into the critical issue of patents and their implications on access to medicines during the COVID-19 pandemic. He discussed the challenges faced by countries and individuals in ensuring affordable and timely access to life-saving medications. The session explored legal, ethical, and practical aspects of intellectual property rights concerning the healthcare sector.

2nd Session

Topic: General Principles of IPR Speaker: Dr. Dinesh. S, Assistant Professor, SJM Law College, Chitradurga.

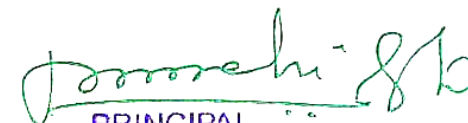

Dr. Dinesh. S presented a comprehensive overview of the general principles of Intellectual Property Rights. He explained the core concepts and principles that underlie the entire field of IPR, including patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets. Dr. Dinesh's session provided a solid foundation for participants to understand the basics of IPR.

Valedictory Remarks

Speaker: Prof. K.N Vishwanath, Principal, SJM Law College, Chitradurga.

Prof. K.N Vishwanath concluded the webinar by summarizing the key takeaways from the day's discussions. He emphasized the importance of intellectual property in today's world and the need for balanced policies that protect innovation while ensuring public access to essential goods and services. Prof. Vishwanath expressed his gratitude to all participants and speakers for their active engagement in the event.

The One Day Online Webinar on Intellectual Property Rights provided a valuable platform for participants to explore and understand the complexities of IPR, especially in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic. The event's discussions shed light on the challenges and opportunities that IPR presents in various sectors, including healthcare and innovation. It underscored the importance of a well-balanced approach to intellectual property that safeguards both innovation and public welfare. The knowledge and insights gained from this webinar will undoubtedly contribute to a better understanding of IPR and its implications in the modern world.
