2(46) "unfair contract"

"unfair contract" means a contract between a manufacturer or trader or service provider on one hand, and a consumer on the other, having such terms which cause significant change in the rights of such consumer, including the following, namely:—

- (i) requiring manifestly excessive security deposits to be given by a consumer for the performance of contractual obligations; or
- (ii) imposing any penalty on the consumer, for the breach of contract thereof which is wholly disproportionate to the loss occurred due to such breach to the other party to the contract; or
- (iii) refusing to accept early repayment of debts on payment of applicable penalty; or
- (iv) entitling a party to the contract to terminate such contract unilaterally, without reasonable cause; or
- (v) permitting or has the effect of permitting one party to assign the contract to the detriment of the other party who is a consumer, without his consent; or
- (vi) imposing on the consumer any unreasonable charge, obligation or condition which puts such consumer to disadvantage;

WHETHER A COMPLAINT IS MAINTAINABLE AFTER APPROACHING THE BANKING OMBUDSMAN

K.K. Shama v. Kulwant Singh, 1997 ISJ (Banking)SC 446.

- The relief envisaged under the Consumer Protection Act is not a substitute for other remedies.
- It is an additional remedy and the choice is with the complainants to seek this remedy or the other i.e. civil suit.
- As far as the decision of complaints by the Banking Ombudsman is concerned, it has not been pointed out that such decision can be implemented if the parties refused to comply.
- In other words, there is no legal sanction for such a decision, it is only recommendary in nature and thus cannot be a bar for approaching the authorities under Consumer Protection Act for relief.
